The gardens at Edmonton are a sight to see, a revelation for an easterner."

FREE PRESS telegram, Regina July 31st:—"The attention of the passengers on Sunday's east going train was drawn to a middle-aged gentleman, whose appearance and dress indicated an intelligent professional man, but who was travelling in the care of a well-armed mounted policeman, Const. On Friday evening last a complimentary dinner was given Thos. G. Lauder at the Alberta hotel, the occasion being his marriage to Miss S. Chandler of Edmonton. The Edmonton fire brigade band did honor to the guest of the evening by serenading him at his late residence and afterwards at the Alberta. Mr. P. Ross acted as chairman and Mr. C. B. Beals as vice chairman. Some sixty persons did ample justice to the menu provided by Mr. Marriaggi. The usual toasts were drunk and a most enjoyable evening spent. Mr. Lauder being the recipient of hearty congratulations on every hand.

H. S. YOUNG returned from Athabasca Landing by way of Lac la Biche yesterday. He took the new St. Albert road to Lac la Biche from the point at which it crosses the Athabasca trail. He found it very little travelled and not in a fit state for travel although a great deal of work has been done on it. For about 40 miles it lies through excellent spruce timber. From Buck lake to Lac la Biche 30 miles the road is good and the country fine. At Lac la Biche some of the barley was almost ripe and has been cut before this date. He brought in onions raised from the seed measuring two inches in diameter and carrots nine inches long. Crops were good at Whitefish and Good fish lake, and at Victoria some of the wheat was nearly ripe. The roads were good from Lac la Biche to Edmonton by way of Victoria, notwithstanding the rainy season.

BY-LAW NO. 48.

A By-Law to provide for borrowing the sum of $15,000 upon the credit of the Municipality.
Whereas it is expedient that there should be raised by the Municipality of the town of Edmonton the sum of $15,000 to enable the Municipality to erect a fire hall, to purchase certain fire apparatus required for the use of the Municipality and provide means for a suitable supply of water for purposes of fire protection.

And whereas the value of the rateable property in the Municipality, according to the last revised assessment roll is $664,364.00.
And whereas the amount of the existing debt of the Municipality, other than for current expenses, is $19,560.55 (incurred in respect of local and permanent improvements) and $703.30 for interest thereon making together $20,263.85 whereof no part is in arrear.

And whereas it is expedient to borrow the said sum of $15,000 by the issue of debentures, the principal whereof shall be repayable in 20 years from the date on which this By-Law takes effect, and which shall bear interest in the meantime payable half yearly at the rate of five per cent per annum.

And whereas it is expedient to provide for the repayment of the said principal sum by the creation of an equal yearly sinking fund.
And whereas the total amount which will be required to be raised annually by a special rate for repaying the said debt of $15,000 by means of a sinking fund as aforesaid, and the interest thereon as aforesaid is $1,203.66.

And whereas the annual special rate on the dollar required as being sufficient to pay the said interest and to create the said yearly sinking fund for the paying of the principal is one mill and eighty-two one hundredths of a mill.

Therefore the Municipality of the town of Edmonton in council assembled enacts as follows:

(2) The Mayor and Clerk of the Municipality may borrow on the credit of the Municipality the sum of $15,000, and may issue debentures of the Municipality in sums to that amount not less than $500 each, and repayable within a period of 20 years from the said 2nd day of July 1893, with interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, payable half yearly; such debentures to be payable at the Imperial Bank of Canada, Edmonton, or to N. W. T., and to be attached to them coupons for the payment of interest.

(3) For the purpose of paying the amount which shall be required to be raised annually for paying the said interest and creating an equal yearly sinking fund to be set apart for the said principal sum of $15,000, a special rate of one mill and eighty-two one hundredths of a mill on the dollar, and above all other rates and taxes shall be levied (in the same manner and at the same time as the general municipal taxes) upon the whole rateable property in the Municipality in each year of the period of 20 years from the said 2nd day of July, 1893, being the period during which the said debentures will run.

(4) Wednesday the 10th day of May, 1893, between the hours of 9 o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon at the office of the town clerk, Edmonton, is hereby fixed as the day and hour and place for taking the votes of the electors for and against this proposed by-law.

(L. S.) (sd) A. G. RANDALL, Clerk.

Finally passed in Council this 23rd day of May, 1893.

(L. S.) (sd) A. G. RANDALL, Clerk.

Attested to, this twelfth day of June, A. D., 1893.
J. ROYAL,
Lieutenant Governor of the Northwest Territories.

NOTICE.

GAME PROTECTION.

Like every other product of the district this year the wild ducks are reaching maturity earlier than usual, and already the young ducks are being slaughtered for food by half breeds and Indians, and no doubt some white men; and no effort is being made to enforce the game law, so far as heard from. The law as altered at last session of the assembly says that ducks shall not be killed until September 1st. Formerly the commencement of the season was fixed at August 15th. Under that regulation the Edmonton gun club interested itself actively in the matter of game protection and the law was strictly enforced in this vicinity. Under the present regulation, which is considered altogether unjust to this district and solely in the interests of sportsmen in the southern parts of the Territories the gun club does not feel inclined to interfere. The facts are that this district is pre-eminently the breeding ground of the mallard, which does not breed on the plains to any extent. The thousands of ducks seen on the plains during the summer are chiefly of small varieties and of very little account even when full grown. In the spring the mallards reach this region nearly as soon as other ducks do the more southern districts and as all the conditions are favorable here begin to breed at once. Consequently the young mallards become able to fly as soon as or sooner than the small ducks of the plains and are of a much larger size.
They are always able to fly well by the middle of August. Very soon after they become fully fledged they begin moving south and by the middle of October or before have all disappeared from this district, about which time the shooting in the south is at its very best.
The difference in opinion between sportsmen in the north and in the south as to the proper date for the commencement of the duck season arises from the fact that in the north the shooting may properly begin as soon as the ducks hatched here become able to fly, while in the south it does not properly begin until the large ducks have begun to arrive from the north. In view of these facts the gun club does not feel justified in going to expense to secure the enforcement of a law whose operation is simply to shut its members out from two weeks of legitimate sport, for the benefit of a part of the country which has by reason of the migration of the ducks a sporting season two weeks longer every year. In legislation there should be fair play all around, and in a region so extensive as the Northwest the differing circumstances of different localities must be taken into consideration or else there is no fair play. When people become satisfied that they are not being fairly treated in any matter of legislation the difficulty of making that legislation operative becomes very great.

SCOTTISH FARMER DELEGATES.

Messrs. Andrew Osler and James Taylor of the Dundee, Scotland, Council a tizan expedition to the World's fair at Chicago, arrived on Thursday's train accompanied by R.P. Burpee of the office of the commissioner of Dominion lands, Winnipeg. The primary object of the expedition was to have twelve practical working men representing as many branches of industry in Scotland visit the fair for the purpose of acquiring information as to the latest improvements in their respective industries with a view of introducing corresponding improvements at home, and also instituting a comparison between the condition of the labor world in Britain and in the United States. The selection was made by ballot by the readers of the Courier. Messrs. Osler and Taylor were selected as delegates representing the farming industry, and both are practical farmers in that most practical country, Scotland, and besides have had good educational advantages. Mr.

Osler has been secretary of the Kerimair agricultural association for fifteen years. After having been selected to accompany the artizan expedition Mr.
Osler was withdrawn from it and given a special commission to enquire into the conditions of farming in North America, with particular attention to the Canadian Northwest. It is on this mission that he with Mr. Taylor are now employed. The object of the trip of Messrs. Osler and Taylor through the Northwest are thus alluded to by the Courier. "Other and still more, important objects of such an examination will readily suggest themselves. Wealthy landowners unable to find an outlet for their capital in this country (Scotland) often resort to the United States for investment purposes, and it is essential that these should be made aware of the circumstances of the country in which their money is placed. Then agriculturists who have only a small amount of money at their command sometimes find it necessary to emigrate to America or the colonies.
For them as well as for farm servants of all classes the information that will now be given in the columns of the Courier will have irresistible attractions."
The Canadian government seeing the importance of this expedition have officially recognized it and are placing every convenience at the disposal of the gentlemen for the attainment of their object. Mr. Burpee accompanies them to be assured that they see all that is to be seen. They have already visited British Columbia and Southern Alberta, and will see the rest of the Territories before they return home. On Friday they drove out to St. Albert, and down the Sturgeon to the school house and then to town. This expedition is proof that the Dundee Courier is a most enterprising paper and also that its enterprise is directed along most practical and likely to be beneficial lines. The agriculturists of small capital in Scotland are not looking for new locations more earnestly than the Northwest is looking for just such people to turn its fertile acres to profitable account. While these people are altogether desirable as an industrial element they are quite as desirable as a social and political element, using the words in their broadest sense. Such men as these built up the eastern provinces of Canada, and laid their political systems on sound foundations, and we cannot get better men for the Northwest. At the same time the Northwest offers probably better inducements to such men than any other country.
The circumstances of this country are such that large capital and cheap labor cannot monopolize the agricultural industry. The man who has the best chance of success is the man who can and does work with both hands and head and who has enough capital to enable him to avail himself of the natural advantages of the country, which he may acquire free of cost. In no other country is as good and productive land with so good a climate and good social order, offered on anything like as easy terms.

ASSISTING IMMIGRATION.

The Calgary Tribune publishes an account of the arrival in Calgary of two brothers named Clark from Pullman, Washington and of their complaints as to broken promises made by immigration agents. They represent a party of seven families with 10 wagons, and 59 horses who have driven from Pullman to Vernon, B. C. and who are now camped at the latter place awaiting the report of the Messrs. Clark as to whether Alberta as a whole is as great a delusion as the promises of the government. When they reached the B. C. boundary they called upon the Canadian customs officer, named Kruger, to have their effects passed and their cattle put in quarantine, as they understood they would be compelled to, at the same time having been assured that the cattle would be held in quarantine by the authorities and afterwards forwarded to destination without expense to the settler. They were told by Kruger that they would have to secure pasturage on the south side of the line at their own expense for the 90 days during which the cattle would have to be held there. The party had 46 head of cattle for the herding of which for 90 days they had to pay $45. On the 59 head of horses owned by the party they paid $200 duty and inspection fees. The fees charged were $2 for one horse or $1.50 each for any number under eight, or $1 a piece for any number over eight to twelve. These fees were paid although the officer made no inspection of the horses. When they reached Vernon at the terminus of the C. P. R. branch in the Okanagan valley they found they would be charged $68 a car to Calgary and two cents a mile passenger fare, although they held cattle a mile certificate. In view of all these facts they decided to remain at Vernon, until they found out just how many more of the inducements held out to them would be ignored.

STEAMBOAT TRIP.

Fraser & Co.'s steamer Upas, left the mill landing on Tuesday forenoon last for the timber limits of the firm, situated about 80 miles up the river. The cargo consisted of supplies for the camp at the rafting place, six raftsmen going up to bring down sawlogs, and the crew which consisted of Messrs. D. R. Fraser, M. McLeod and A. Omand. The latter was engineer and M. McLeod pilot. A fair run was made on Tuesday and a point above the Big Island was reached about 20 miles by land from Edmonton. Several delays occurred by the boat not taking the best channel in difficult places on the first attempt and being compelled to back off and try again. In starting out on Wednesday morning a delay occurred through the boat grounding on a gravel bar just as she was leaving shore. This caused several hours delay. Notwithstanding this delay, and a further delay occasioned by taking on coal, which had first to be mined, Moore & Macdowall's timber limit above the mouth of the White Mud was reached on Wednesday. On Thursday a good start was made and the rapids at Goose Encampment were reached about nine o'clock in the forenoon. This was within about seven miles of the limits. The river here is divided into many channels by islands and sand bars and is consequently very shallow. It was found to be impossible to get water enough to float the boat over the rapids and after several attempts it was decided to land the men and supplies there and let the men go on to the rafting place on foot, the supplies being carried forward by team. This was further than any steamboat had ever been before. In 1876 a government tug was run up to the present site of Moore & Macdowall's timber limit but no other vessel passed Edmonton since. The return trip was commenced on Thursday afternoon and a supply of coal was taken from the Big Arch coal seam. Moore & Macdowall's mill was reached the same evening, and Edmonton on Friday about one o'clock, without mishap of any kind. A slight rise of water on Thursday night assisted materially in the down trip. Had the rise occurred on the previous night the steamer would certainly have reached the limit. The rafts came down on Saturday and the steamer started up the river again to-day with the raftsmen. The boat is very manageable and has plenty of power to get up stream at a fair rate of speed, but being propelled by a screw she requires about three and a half feet of water to run on and this is more than the upper river has in some of its rapids in low water. Of course when the water is high it is all right even there. As she draws fully a foot less water than the large steamers which used to run from Grand Rapids to Edmonton she would do very well on the lower river. Such a boat to run excursions on the river would be a great tourist attraction at Edmonton and could be made to assist materially in developing the country around Egg lake, south of Victoria settlement which bids fair to settle up rapidly. A little steamer such as this one on the river would enable Edmonton to hold the trade of the country south of Victoria and northeast of Beaver lake. The Upas is built with a cabin suitable for passenger accommodation but as this interferes with the working of the boat in difficult places it will likely be removed and the boat made what it was intended to be in the first place, simply a tug.

The local newspaper represents the district in which it is published to the outside world.

Support your home paper liberally if it deserves support, so that it can give the best possible impression of your town and district as a field for immigration and investment.

GENERAL NEWS.
 Toronto housing might cause a Winnipeg epidemic shortly.

New Denver in West Kootenay has a paper, the Edmonton Proprietor.

The Calgary Herald says that fire have commenced in the mountains.

A hortatory correspondence of the Free Press says that a farmer there commenced cutting wheat on August 1st.

Two negroes were lynched at Gaston, South Carolina on July 25th with the usual tortures for the usual offence.

The fall storm on the Manitoba North-western on July 27th destroyed 80 to 100 thousand bushels of grain in the municipality of Arden, Manitoba.

The Calgary Tribune wants the minister of interior to address a public meeting in Calgary on public questions affecting the interests of Alberta, on his return from the coast.

Mrs. Harrison, a colored woman residing alone in Calgary, was assaulted on the night of July 28th by an unknown man. Her husband, says the Tribune, is a colored man working as a plasterer in the north.

The Calgary Tribune says that W. Gates, formerly of Fullman, Washington, and now of Westview has been compelled to go to Mexico to bring in his cattle held in quarantine, although he was promised that the cattle would be brought in free of expense.

There were the other day two hundred and fifty cars of hay in Alberta awaiting shipment to England, and the Canadian Pacific Railway had refused to handle any more until cars were cleared. If its pays to send hay to England to be converted into beef, it would surely be more profitable to feed it on this side, the sea and pay freight on the beef only.

An exchange points out that under the new game law book agents may be killed from August 1 to October 1, spring poets from March 1 to July 2, second mangers from January 1 to December 31, both dates inclusive, umbrella borrowers from February 1 to May 1, open season all year on life insurance agents, picture peddlers and newspaper borrowers. Up to the present time two hundred National banks have failed in the United States since January 1st. Several of the largest silver mines in Montana have been closed down, and great local distress has resulted. The special session of Congress will meet August 7, when President Cleveland will ask for the unconditional repeal of the Sherman Silver Act, which course he believes to be the only one that will restore confidence in the financial stability of the country and allay the panic.

Mayor Desjardins of Montreal created something of a sensation by declaring that personally he could take no part in the reception of officers and men of the Italian warship Atina, which arrived on Monday from Quebec. He says that being a good Roman Catholic he can take no part whatever in the reception of the warship of a country whose government is under the ban of the Vatican. Mayor Desjardins is a knight of the Holy Roman empire and a most devoted Catholic.

Winnipeg Commercial: The crop prospect while good, is not "phenomenal." While the average condition is good—even very good—it might be much better. Some districts have had too much rain, and crops on low lands have suffered. Other sections have not had sufficient moisture, and the yield is light and the yield likely to be rather under than over a fair average. The general outlook, however, as we have stated is promising, and if the crop maintains its present condition to the finish, there will be every reason to rejoice, and not much room for complaint.

The losses of cattle have not been what owners were led to believe during the winter, and surely this part of the range country is more blessed than some sections, for from Arizona comes the news that the bones of dead cattle are being gathered and shipped in car loads to California. These cattle died of drought during the fall and winter of 1892, and the bones are shaken out of the dry hides. It requires the bones of about 600 cattle to make a carload, and as one man has collected four carloads within a radius of thirty miles of Tucson, and claims that the bones of those 2,400 cattle do not represent one third of those that perished within those limits last fall, one can imagine about how the cattle interest fared there.—Montana Stock Growers' Journal.

Ten acres must be broken the first year, 15 acres in the second and 15 in the third year; 10 acres to be in crop the second year, and 25 acres the third year.

3. A settler may reside anywhere for the first two years, in the first year breaking 5 acres, in the second cropping said land and breaking additional 10, also building a habitable house. The entry is forfeited if residence is not commenced at the expiration of 2 years from date of entry. Thereafter the settler must reside upon and cultivate his homestead for at least six months in each year for three years.
